

	First Grade Information Skills / Media Center Integration
Integration Literature	Active Readers Theatre (ART) Read alouds (RA) Genres study Guided reading Parts of a story (beginning, middle, end)
Information Skills/ Writing, listening	Graphic organizers Editing Reading comprehension Sorting by multiple attributes Rhyming patterns Make a book
Information Skills/ Reference, research	Observation and question scientific research Measure and predict Record data Intro to non-fiction research tools Fiction / non-fiction (differences, location) Beginning reference sources (Intro to dictionary, encyclopedia) Guidewords Location of printed reference sources Recognition of factual and inaccurate information in text, video, and online
Catalog Use	Alpha order by author Sort and classify by one or more attributes Spine label Parts of book Author, title, illustrator, publisher Conduct a keyword search using online catalog Locate print items by call number Account management Responsibilities for library use Library personnel
Technical Multimedia	Create an electronic product representing learning Note taking Basic word processing Graphic organizer Self/family timeline Locate non-print reference resources (dictionary, encyclopedia)
Computer Skills	Intro to formatting document Keyboarding Upper/lower case Intro to editing Insert graphic Draw
Character Development	Media Center Rules Responsible use of materials Student identification Library equity of use, check out, and quiet
Math	Graph books that are fiction and non-fiction, sort and classify Use graphic organizers for sorting and classifying
History	Timeline use and creation to show past and present Locate 900's and biographies Create directional map of library Author study
English	Use graphic organizers for story writing and outline Model alphabetical order to the third letter on spine labels Exemplify use of last name for organization and filing Produce a book with appropriate cover, title, author's name, title page, spine label Locate various genres Letters to book characters/authors
Science	Research through dictionary and encyclopedia Locate various science subjects Learn to use non-fiction reading strategies